Coal Imports Decline by 5.83 Percent

ReducedRelianceon ImportsDrivenby StrongerDomestic Production and Supply

New Delhi, Trinet News, November 1:

The Union Ministry of Coal has announced a decline in the country's coal imports. Total coal imports fell from 111.05 million tonnes in August 2025 to 104.57 million tonnes in August 2026—a reduction of 6.48 million tonnes, or 5.83 percent. The Ministry stated that initiatives aimed at boosting domestic coal production, improving availability, and strengthening the supply chain are effectively reducing the nation's dependence on imports. Coal imports by power plants decreased from 22.77 million tonnes to 21.32 million tonnes, marking a decline of 6.39 percent. Notably, there was a significant drop in the volume of coal imported for "blended" use in power plants primarily designed for domestic coal; these imports fell from 4.64 million tonnes to 3 million tonnes—a decrease of 35.23 percent.

However, there was a marginal increase in imports by power plants that operate primarily on imported coal. Imports, which stood at 18.13 million tonnes in August last year, reached 18.31 million tonnes in August this year—an increase of 0.98 percent.

The share of imported coal in the country's total coal consumption has also declined; it fell from 21.20 percent in August 2025 to 19.30 percent in August 2026, marking a decrease of 1.90 percentage points.

Imports of coking coal—a critical raw material for the steel industry—dropped from 28.49 million tonnes to 27.30 million tonnes, a decline of 4.18 percent. The Ministry explained that coking coal continues to be imported to meet the specific requirements of the steel industry, as domestic reserves are limited in terms of quality and characteristics.

The Ministry stated that the focus is on increasing domestic coal production and evacuation, as well as improving connectivity from the mines to the primary transport network. It further

Union Minister Rajiv Ranjan Singh to Visit Sikkim Starting Tomorrow

Launch of Projects Worth Rs 3.75 Crore Under PMMSY

New Delhi, Trinet News, November 1:

Union Minister Rajiv Ranjan Singh, also known as Lalan Singh, is set to visit Gangtok and Mangan districts in Sikkim on November 2 and 3. During his visit, he will review fisheries development initiatives and inaugurate projects worth Rs 3.75 crore (Rs 375 lakh) under the Pradhan Mantri Matsya Sampada Yojana (PMMSY).

As part of the visit, the Minister will release a Standard Operating Procedure (SOP) for organic fish farming. He will also hold direct interactions with fish farmers to understand their requirements and the challenges they face on the ground. Furthermore, he will distribute Kisan Credit Cards to fish farmers and hand over cheques under the 'Mukhyamantri Matsya Utpadan Yojana'.

The Minister will visit a live fish sales center in Mangshila and hold discussions with a cooperative society of fish farmers. He intends to gather feedback on the facilities required for fish marketing and the operations of such cooperative societies. At the Mangan district administrative center, he will review the progress of fisheries development and the implementation of the PMMSY, with a specific focus on the needs of the fisheries sector in remote and geographically challenging regions. This event is being organized as part of a structured initiative—guided by the Prime Minister—for Union Ministers to visit the Northeastern states. The objective is to promote the effective implementation of development schemes and to gather feedback from the grassroots level. Participants will include senior officials from the Government of Sikkim, the Mangan district administration, the Union Ministry of Fisheries, relevant departments, representatives from ICAR fisheries research institutes, fish farmers, cooperative societies, and Fish Farmer Producer Organizations (FFPOs).

The Northeastern region, with its abundant freshwater resources and diverse aquatic ecosystems, offers vast potential for the sustainable development of the fisheries sector. The government aims to create better opportunities in both domestic and international markets by focusing on organic certification, traceability (from source to sale), processing, and value addition.

The government is implementing a 'cluster-based' approach that integrates fish production, processing, value addition, and marketing. Under the Pradhan Mantri Matsya Sampada Yojana (PMMSY), 34 fisheries production and processing clusters have been announced nationwide, including organic fisheries clusters in Sikkim and Meghalaya. These initiatives are expected to help fish farmers secure better prices, higher incomes, and increased employment opportunities.

PM Modi Extends Greetings to the People of Tamil Nadu State's Contribution to National Progress Praised

New Delhi, Trinet News, November 1:

Prime Minister Narendra Modi has extended his greetings to the people of Tamil Nadu on the occasion of Tamil Nadu Day. He lauded the people of the state for their industrious nature and business acumen, noting that they have made significant contributions to India's progress. He shared this message on the social media platform 'X'.

The Prime Minister highlighted that Tamil Nadu has carved a distinct identity across various sectors—ranging from manufacturing, automobiles, and textiles to electronics, space technology, healthcare, and emerging new industries. He commended the state for fostering innovation, skill, and industrial prowess, which in turn bolsters the nation's development.

Modi noted that the people of Tamil Nadu take great pride in their cultural identity and traditions. He remarked that Tamil culture has enriched the journey of Indian civilization in many profound ways.

The Prime Minister expressed his wish that this special occasion brings happiness, success, and new opportunities into the lives of everyone in Tamil Nadu.

Drinking water supply to be disrupted in Hyderabad for 36 hours from November 3

Hyderabad, Trinet News, November 01:

Drinking water supply will be disrupted in many areas of the city for 36 hours from November 3. The Hyderabad Water Board will undertake repair work to prevent major leakages in the Gandipet conduit at Sabja Colony, Tolichawki and Manikonda areas.

The repair operations are scheduled to begin at 6:00 AM on Tuesday, November 3, and will continue until 6:00 PM on Wednesday, November 4. Due to these 36-hour-long works, the supply of drinking water will be suspended in various areas of the city.

Details of Affected Areas:

According to the Water Board, the affected areas include Red Hills, Nampally, Mallepally, Sitarambagh, Godeki Khabar, Hindi Nagar, the Assembly, the Secretariat, New MLA Quarters, Adarsh ??Nagar, the Nampally South Central Railway area, and Gunfoundry—all falling under the Goshamahal and Karwan circles. Additionally, water supply will be interrupted in Chintal Basti, Vijayanagar Colony, Old Mallepally, Asif Nagar, and Ahmed Nagar, which fall under the Golconda zone. Water supply will be disrupted in areas including Kawadiguda, Gandhinagar, and Domalguda, which fall under the Kawadiguda circle. The Banjara Hills ward, located within the Jubilee Hills circle, will also experience an impact on its water supply.

Use water sparingly

Residents in the affected areas may face difficulties regarding drinking water until the repair works are completed. In light of this, the Water Board officials have advised consumers to store an adequate supply of water in advance and to use the available water sparingly.

Revise the Rationalization Orders for Teachers Release and Immediately Implement the PRC Report: TPTF Demands

Hyderabad, T-Net News, November 01:

The Telangana Progressive Teachers Federation (TPTF) state committee has demanded that the government revise the rationalization orders for teachers, and release and immediately implement the Pay Revision Commission (PRC) report. During a state committee meeting held on Sunday at the organization's state office in Hyderabad, President Chakinala Anil Kumar and General Secretary Nanneboyina Tirupati urged the government to amend the current rule—which assigns only two teachers for every 60 students in primary schools—and instead allocate one teacher per class, regardless of the number of students. They also called for the cancellation of online programs and excessive training initiatives that keep teachers away from their classrooms.

Furthermore, they demanded the abolition of the Contributory Pension Scheme (CPS), the extension of the Old Pension Scheme to teachers recruited through the 2003 DSC, and the announcement of the PRC fitment. They also requested the implementation of the Minimum Wages Act for 'Samagra Shiksha' employees, the disbursement of salaries for Model School teachers through the '010' budget head, and the extension of the Employees' Health Scheme (EHS) to them. Additionally, they appealed to the government to merge aided schools into the state's public education department.

Also present at the meeting was P., the Editor-in-Chief of 'Teacher Darshini'. Nagireddy, G. Tirupathireddy, Muthyala Ravinder, P. Narayanamma, M. Lakshmaiah Yadav, S. Vijay, Boga Ramesh, Damera Rajaiah, and others participated.

The visit was attended by the Commissioner of the Future City Development Authority, Shashanka; Ranga Reddy District Collector C. Narayana Reddy; RDO Parthasimha Reddy; relevant engineering officials; the Tahsildar; representatives from various companies; and other officials.

Our Resolve is to Protect Democracy and the Constitution No One is Greater Than the Constitution:

-Leader of the Opposition, Rahul Gandhi

-Election Commission Must Answer Regarding the Theft of Votes – 'Save the Vote, Save the Nation' (Vote Bachao–Desh Bachao) Rally at Ramlila Maidan

New Delhi, Trainet NewsNovember 1:
Leader of the Opposition in the Lok Sabha, Rahul Gandhi, has made it clear that their resolve is to safeguard democracy and the Constitution in the country. He was speaking at the 'Save the Vote, Save the Nation' (Vote Bachao–Desh Bachao) mega-rally organized by the INDIA alliance at Ramlila Maidan in Delhi on Sunday. He declared that no one is greater than the Constitution and affirmed that the struggle to protect the people's right to vote will continue. Rahul Gandhi stated that this rally does not belong to any single political party or leader; rather, it represents the voice of the nation's youth, farmers, laborers, and the common people. Alleging that votes are being stolen in the country, he demanded that the Election Commission provide answers regarding EVMs, the removal of names from electoral rolls, and the addition of new names. He alleged that 135 million (13.5 crore) voters' names were removed from the electoral rolls following the 2024 Lok Sabha elections—a development that, he noted, affects the voting rights of one in every seven people. In light of these allegations, there were demands for Chief Election Commissioner Gyanesh Kumar to step down from his position and for legal action to be taken against those responsible. Emphasizing the need for transparency and accountability within the electoral system, it was stated that democratic institutions do not belong to any single political party, but rather to the people of the nation. Criticism was leveled at the growing influence of the ruling party over institutions such as the CBI, the ED, the judiciary, and the police force. It was further alleged that the nation's wealth is becoming concentrated in the hands of a few industrialists, while farmers are denied fair prices for their produce, the youth lack employment opportunities, and workers are deprived of their rightful entitlements. The vision expressed was for the creation of an India that provides equal opportunities for all.At the same time, Rahul Gandhi stated that their struggle is directed against hatred and violence, with love, non-violence, and brotherhood serving as their guiding principles. He asserted that the voice of every citizen—regardless of religion, caste, region, or gender—must be respected. Invoking the ideals of Mahatma Gandhi, he noted that it is a democratic responsibility to protect the rights of the most marginalized individuals in society. He clarified that while individuals like Narendra Modi, Amit Shah, and Gyanesh Kumar are not his personal enemies, he will not tolerate attacks on the Constitution and democracy. He called for replacing hatred with love, division with unity, and violence with non-violence across the country. Rahul Gandhi concluded his speech by calling for a united struggle to protect the voting rights of the nation's citizens and the values ??of the Constitution. A large number of national leaders from the INDIA alliance, representatives from various states, and party workers participated in this gathering.

Coal India Forges Ahead with Record Production and Supply
70.3 Million Tonnes of Coal Supplied in October

Company Enters 52nd Year After Completing 51 Years of Operation

New Delhi, Trinet News, November 01:

Coal India Limited (CIL), the nation's leading coal producer, celebrated its 51st Foundation Day marked by record-breaking achievements. Operating under the Union Ministry of Coal, the company delivered an exceptional performance in October 2024 across coal production, total coal off-take, and supplies to the power sector.In October, Coal India supplied a total of 70.3 million tonnes of coal, setting a new record for the highest-ever monthly supply. This surpasses the previous record of 69.4 million tonnes, set in March 2024. Compared to the same month last year, this represents a 19 percent growth in supply. Coal supply to the power sector also reached a new peak; with 57.1 million tonnes supplied in October, the company surpassed the previous record of 56.5 million tonnes set in May 2024. This segment also saw a 19 percent year-on-year growth.

The company also established a new record for coal production for the month of October. With an output of 67.2 million tonnes in October 2026, the company surpassed its previous record of 62.47 million tonnes, set in October 2024. This represents a 19 percent increase in production compared to October of the previous year. The organization also reached another milestone in the rail-based transportation of coal. It recorded its highest-ever monthly average of 310 coal rakes loaded per day for the power sector, exceeding the previous record of 302.8 rakes per day set in March 2025.

Established on November 1, 1975, Coal India produced 79 million tonnes of coal in its first year. By the 2025–26 financial year, production had reached 768 million tonnes. Having achieved nearly tenfold growth over five decades, the company has set a production target of 815 million tonnes for the 2026–27 financial year.

The company stated that it is focusing on increasing production to meet the nation's growing energy demands, strengthening coal transportation, and ensuring a continuous supply. As it enters its 52nd year, the organization reaffirmed its commitment to further contributing to the country's energy security and national development.

'Chalo Delhi': Massive Protest Against Vote Theft

Yadadri Bhuvanagiri, November 01 / Trainet News:

Congress leaders from Atmakur (M) mandal have departed for a massive protest against 'vote theft,' being held at Ramlila Maidan in New Delhi. Following a call from Rahul Gandhi, the delegation set off for Delhi under the leadership of Government Whip and Alair MLA, Beerla Ilaiah. They urged every citizen to extend their support to this struggle aimed at safeguarding democracy and protecting the Constitution. Those who departed to participate in the event included Mandal Congress President Kandati Anantha Reddy, PACS Chairman Yasa Lakshma Reddy, OBC Cell District President Bathini Uppalaiah Goud, SarpanchForumPresident(and Sarpanch of Sarvapalli village) Kalvakuntla Upender Reddy, Mandal Working President Muddasani Siddhulu Goud, and the MLA's personal assistant, Balaram, among others.

Congress leaders! Provide answers here on the soil of Motkur first—then head to Delhi!

Yadadri Bhuvanagiri, November 01 / Trainet News:

The BJP strongly condemns the false propaganda spread by the Congress party against the Election Commission—the highest constitutional body. Where exactly did "vote theft" occur in the 10 villages of Motkur mandal? Whose vote went missing? Who exactly has been wronged? Can you present even a single piece of evidence to the public? Furthermore, is it appropriate for an MLA—who should be addressing the concerns of the people—to ignore local issues and prioritize political allegations and publicity stunts instead? Focus first on the problems faced by the people of the Motkur region. It is unacceptable to disparage the duties of those involved in the electoral process—such as Booth Level Officers (BLOs), Gram Panchayat staff, Mandal Panchayat officials, and the staff of the Tahsildar's office—through baseless political accusations. If there are errors, file a formal complaint with evidence and demand an inquiry. I issue an open challenge to the Congress leaders: provide answers backed by evidence before the people of Motkur. Come forward for an open discussion in the presence of the relevant officials; let the truth be revealed in front of the public. Do not just go to Delhi to deliver speeches—provide answers here on the soil of Motkur first! Stop making allegations—show evidence! Stop playing politics—provide solutions to the people's problems! — Gude Madhusudhan Yadav, BJP President, Motkur Mandal.

Women Must Play a Pivotal Role in Preserving Dharma
A Call from Pragya Didi, All-India Convener of Durga Vahini

'ShaktiVandan–Shakti Sanchalan' Held Grandly in the Old City

Hyderabad, Trinet News, November 01:

Pragya Didi, the All-India Convener of Durga Vahini—the youth wing for women under the Vishva Hindu Parishad (VHP)—has called upon women to play a crucial role in the preservation of Hindu Dharma. She urged them to draw inspiration from the valor of Jhansi Lakshmi Bai and the maternal values ??of Jijabai, and to work with a sense of duty toward the nation and society.

She was speaking at a gathering of young Hindu women held on Sunday at the Mitra Club in Gaulipura, located in the Old City of Hyderabad. The event was organized to mark the birth centenary of the late VHP leader Ashok Singhal. As part of the 'Shakti Vandan–Shakti Sanchalan' (Saluting Power – Mobilizing Power) initiative, nearly a thousand Durga Vahini volunteers participated in uniform.

During the event, a rally was taken out through various parts of the Old City, accompanied by chants of 'Jai Shri Ram.' Local residents welcomed the volunteers by showering them with flowers. The route of the rally was adorned with saffron flags. The volunteers also held demonstrations near several temples, including the vicinity of the Simhavahini Ammavari

Temple in Lal Darwaza. Subsequently, the meeting—presided over by Vani Sakkubai, the Telangana State Convener of Durga Vahini—commenced with the ceremonial lighting of a lamp. Speaking on the occasion, Pragya Didi stated that the values ??instilled by Jijabai served as the foundation for thedevelopmentofChhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj's personality. She highlighted the heroic struggle of Jhansi Lakshmibai as an inspiring example of women's power (nari shakti). She urged young women to take these lives as ideals and move forward with courage, self-confidence, and a strong sense of duty.She described Hindu Dharma as an embodiment of love, compassion, service, sacrifice, humanity, and family values. She noted that Goddesses Durga, Lakshmi, and Saraswati are symbols of feminine power. Emphasizing that the values ??mothers impart to their children form the foundation for the nation's future, she encouraged women to balance love and affection with the courage to confront injustice.

She cautioned young women to remain vigilant against harassment, violence, deception in the name of love, and forced religious conversions. She called for a collective and legal response to any actions that compromise the freedom, self-respect, or safety of women. She further urged them to participate in the preservation of Indian culture, temples, and religious traditions. She expressed her aspiration for Durga Vahini activists to become embodiments of service, cultural values, courage, and commitment to the welfare of society. The cultural programs presented during the event were highlyengaging.These included plays based on devotional and spiritual themes, as well as Kuchipudi dance performances. Members of 'Durga Vahini' showcased various martial arts skills, including stick fighting, unarmed combat, and swordsmanship.

The event was attended by several notable figures, includingKshetra Sanghatana Mantri Gummalla Satyam, State Co-Secretary Chintala Venkanna,StateVicePresident Sunitha Reddy, Dharma Acharya Samparka Pramukh Pagadakula Balaswamy, Saraswati Shishu Mandiram Regional Governing Body member Alivelu Mangamma, Professor Dr. Swapna Reddy, Balaji Scan Enterprises Managing Director Lalitha, Kallem Rajender Reddy, Vishal, and Madhavi, among

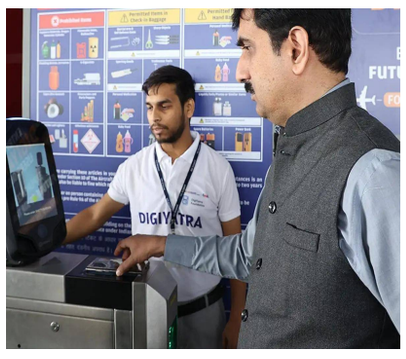

'DigiYatra' Trials for International Passengers at Seven Airports
Available to Indians with e-passports; plans underway for expansion in 2027

New Delhi, Trainet News, November 01:

'DigiYatra' trial services have been launched for international air passengers at seven airports across the country. Eligible Indian citizens holding e-passports can participate in these trials, which will run from November through December 2026. This facility is available to passengers traveling on select international flights operated by Air India and IndiGo.

The trials are being conducted at airports in Delhi, Bengaluru, Hyderabad, Cochin, Mumbai, Chennai, and Amritsar. Where the necessary infrastructure is in place, passengers can utilize DigiYatra at terminal entry points, security hold areas, and boarding gates. Based on feedback collected from passengers during this pilot phase, plans will be formulated to further expand the services in 2027.

To avail of this facility, eligible passengers must generate an e-passport-based 'Verifiable Credential' (VC) within the DigiYatra mobile app. To do this, one must scan the Machine Readable Zone (MRZ) of the passport and use an NFC-enabled smartphone to read the chip embedded in the passport. Following this, a selfie must be taken to verify the details. This digital credential is then stored in the 'DigiYatra' wallet on the passenger's phone.

DigiYatra services function as a supplement to existing travel procedures. Passengers are still required to carry their travel documents with them. Standard requirements—such as document checks by airlines, immigration processes, and other mandatory travel regulations—must be completed as usual.

DigiYatra currently has over 26.5 million (2.65 crore) users across the country. The platform has facilitated more than 110 million (11 crore) passenger journeys across 39 airports for domestic air travel. Plans are in place to expand these services to an additional 25 domestic airports by 2027.

The Ministry of Civil Aviation has stated its commitment to enhancing airport operations through technology, in line with the goals of 'Digital India' and the objective of making air travel more convenient.

‘Gandharvam–4’ International Conference Concludes Successfully

Nearly 50 Gurus and Artists Present Research Papers

Hyderabad, Trinet News, November 01:

The ‘Gandharvam–4’ international conference, organized by the Navya Nataka Samithi and focused on Indian classical music and dance forms, concluded successfully on Sunday. Held over two days at the Sri Krishnadevaraya Telugu Bhasha Nilayam, the conference saw nearly 50 Gurus and artists present their research papers. G. Vasundhara, Deputy Director of the State Treasury and Accounts Department, attended the closing session as the chief guest.

Speaking on the occasion, Vasundhara remarked that the initiatives of the Navya Nataka Samithi are always fresh and innovative. She commended the organization for hosting the annual ‘Gandharvam’ international conference, which serves to encourage young musicians, dancers, Gurus, and researchers. She suggested that young artists should view participation in this event as a unique and valuable opportunity. Literature Must Constantly Engage with Contemporary Society

Call by Speakers at the 12th Annual Meeting of the Telangana Writers' Association

Literary Discussions Across Three Sessions; Poetry Readings by 50 Poets

Hyderabad, Trinet News, November 1: Several literary figures have expressed the view that literature should reflect the developments within contemporary society, the challenges faced by the people, and democratic values. The 12th annual meeting of the Telangana Writers' Association was held with great enthusiasm on Sunday, November 1. Dhanapuram Devender extended a welcome to the attendees. The inaugural session was presided over by Dr. Naleswaram Sankaram, President of the Telangana Writers' Association. He emphasized that contemporary literature must engage in a dialogue with society and reflect the lives of the people through a democratic lens. He also highlighted the initiatives undertaken by the Association over the past 12 years and its contributions to the field of literature. The Secretary’s report was presented by Dr. V. Shankar.

Delivering the keynote address, prominent journalist K. Srinivas spoke about current global conditions, political objectives, social values, and the relationship that writers should cultivate with future generations. He noted the necessity for a culture of constructive criticism and analytical review within society. Virahat Ali, President of the Telangana Working Journalists' Association, remarked that the Telangana Writers' Association operates with a strong sense of social consciousness, keeping the lives of the people at the core of its work. Baisa Devadasu, editor of Neti Nijam, stated that this organization holds a unique position as a vibrant collective of writers who stand with the people, remaining independent of both the ruling party and the opposition. Dr. Enugu Narasimha Reddy, Director of the Department of Language and Culture, remarked that poets who think about the people are the ones treading the right path. He noted that the Telangana armed struggle and the movement for statehood have provided valuable lessons, and he urged everyone to remain vigilant against communal forces. MLC Desapati Srinivas explained that the Telangana Writers' Association (Telangana Rachayitala Sangham) was formed following the realization of the Telangana state, with the goal of fostering an organized literary movement to drive an ideological shift. He called upon writers to respond to the rising violence in society and the decline of humanistic values. Renowned poet and Sahitya Akademi Award recipient, Nandini Sidhareddy, emphasized that contemporary literature must engage with today’s society—especially the younger generation. He cautioned that an inability to withstand criticism is unhealthy, adding that literature that finds a place in the hearts of the people is far more significant than mere book sales. Ponnala Balaiah delivered the vote of thanks for this session. The second session was introduced by prominent poet Billa Mahender and presided over by Dr. Bellamkonda Sampath Kumar, General Secretary of the Telangana Writers' Association (Twin Cities chapter). N. Venugopal, editor of the magazine Veekshanam, stated that while engaging with the present is crucial, it is equally important to nurture and cultivate the future. It was noted that writers such as Dasarathi, Vattikota Alwar Swamy, and Kaloji continue to engage in a dialogue with society even today. Suggestions were made to conduct deeper research into the history of Telangana literature and to undertake a collective effort toward creating a dedicated dictionary for the Telangana region.

Professor Banna Ailaiah from Kakatiya University analyzed the short-story literature produced from the time of the struggle for Telangana statehood up to 2023. He explained how themes such as government schemes and their implementation, unemployment, livelihood issues, politics, elections, and land-related matters have been reflected in this body of literature. Kondapalli Niharini delivered the concluding remarks, while Gaddam Sulochana proposed the vote of thanks. The third session commenced at 4:00 PM, featuring approximately 50 poets who recited works reflecting contemporary society. Serving as a platform for extensive discussions on current literary trends, the evolution of Telangana literature, democratic values, and the social responsibility of writers, this 12th annual gathering sparked new ideas among literature enthusiasts.

Dinesh Vithalrao Ganveer Appointed Director General of GSI
Focus on Exploration of Critical Minerals and Modern Technology

New Delhi, Trinet News, November 01:

Dinesh Vithalrao Ganveer has assumed charge as the 55th Director General of the Geological Survey of India (GSI), an attached office under the Union Ministry of Mines. He brings over three decades of experience in geological research, mineral exploration, engineering geology, and organizational leadership.

Having completed his Master’s degree in Geology from RTMNU, Nagpur, Ganveer joined the GSI on July 1, 1994. Over his 32-plus years of service, he has held various scientific, technical, and administrative roles across the Central, Northeastern, and Northern regions of the organization. Prior to this appointment, he served as the Additional Director General and Head of the Central Region in Nagpur, while also holding additional responsibilities as the Head of National Mission-II.

His professional contributions include specialized geological mapping in the Western Bastar Craton and the exploration for gold and diamonds in the Sakoli Fold Belt of Maharashtra. He has also been involved in geological studies aimed at the preservation of UNESCO World Heritage Sites, including the Bhimbetka rock shelters and the Ellora Caves. He represented the Geological Survey of India (GSI) at various international forums, including the India-Peru Joint Working Group, the Russia-India Sub-group on Mining, and IMARC 2022 held in Australia.

As the Head of National Mission-II, Ganveer played a pivotal role in a five-fold increase in exploration activities for critical and strategic minerals. During his tenure, he facilitated the submission of 359 geological reports and 377 geological memoranda. Of these, 40 blocks—out of 202 identified for critical minerals—have already been auctioned. Furthermore, 11 blocks were auctioned across the first two tranches under the Exploration License (EL) regime.

Upon assuming his new responsibilities, Ganveer stated that the focus would be on accelerating the exploration of critical and strategic minerals to strengthen the nation’s mineral security and reduce dependence on imports. He emphasized prioritizing comprehensive geological investigations, advanced mapping to identify potential mineral resources, and the delineation of mineral blocks for auction, backed by robust scientific data.

He further noted that by integrating modern technology and advanced data analysis into field-level investigations, the accuracy and efficiency of exploration efforts would be significantly enhanced. It was stated that, alongside the development of laboratory infrastructure and analytical capabilities, the focus will also be placed on mineral exploration in marine regions.

Furthermore, it was noted that the services of the Geological Survey of India (GSI) will be further strengthened in areas such as fundamental geological research, early warning systems for landslides, studies on glaciers and icy regions, support for large-scale infrastructure projects, and the assessment of disaster risks. Efforts will be made to ensure the timely delivery of high-quality research outcomes by encouraging scientists, recognizing talent, and fostering coordination across various departments. It was emphasized that the organization will continue to play a pivotal role in the development of the nation’s mineral resources and in enhancing the country's capacity to withstand disasters, in alignment with the goal of 'Viksit Bharat 2047' (Developed India 2047).

Kiren Rijiju Attends Consecration of 108 Stupas in Bhutan

Special Prayers Offered at the 76th Stupa Dedicated to Prime Minister Modi

New Delhi, Trinet News, November 01:

UnionMinister for Parliamentary Affairs and Minority Affairs, Kiren Rijiju, participated as a representative of the Government of India in the construction and consecration ceremony of 108 Buddhist stupas at the Gelephu Mindfulness City in Bhutan. The event, held on Sunday under the guidance of the King of Bhutan, Jigme Khesar Namgyel Wangchuck, stands as a symbol of the spiritual and cultural bond, as well as the close friendship between the two nations.

Conceptualized and steered by the King of Bhutan, this project saw thousands of volunteers construct 108 stupas in a single day. They have been installed along an 11.7-kilometer stretch by the Aie (Mau) River in the Gelephu Mindfulness City, near the Assam border. Each stupa stands 15 meters tall, with a distance of 108 meters between them. The project aims to develop Gelephu into a prominent center for Vajrayana Buddhism while reflecting the values ??and culture of the Bhutanese people. Special prayers were held at the 76th stupa—dedicated by the King of Bhutan to Prime Minister Narendra Modi in recognition of his steadfast support for the Gelephu Mindfulness City. The King of Bhutan, the country’s Prime Minister, and Union Minister Kiren Rijiju participated in the prayers. On behalf of Prime Minister Modi, Minister Rijiju expressed gratitude to the King of Bhutan for this honor.

During his visit to Bhutan from October 31 to November 2, Minister Rijiju called on the King and met with Prime Minister Dasho Tshering Tobgay. Both sides expressed satisfaction with the progress of bilateral cooperation across various sectors, including development partnership, trade, energy, investments, connectivity, and cultural ties.

Ashutosh Dixit Takes Charge as 29th Chief of the Air Staff
Unveiling a Four-Pillar Guiding Vision Under the Acronym ‘VAYU’

New Delhi, Trinet News, November 01:

Air Chief Marshal Ashutosh Dixit assumed charge as the 29th Chief of the Air Staff of the Indian Air Force on Sunday. He began his tenure by paying tribute to the martyrs who sacrificed their lives in the service of the nation at the National War Memorial. Subsequently, he received a ceremonial guard of honour at the Air Force Station in New Delhi.An experimental test pilot and a qualified flying instructor, Dixit possesses over 3,500 hours of flying experience. He has held key positions, including Chief of Integrated Defence Staff to the Chairman, Chiefs of Staff Committee; Air Officer Commanding-in-Chief of the Central Air Command; and Vice Chief of the Air Staff. In recognition of his distinguished service, he has been awarded the Param Vishisht Seva Medal, Ati Vishisht Seva Medal, Vayu Sena Medal, and Vishisht Seva Medal.

In his maiden address, he outlined the future goals and priorities for the Air Force, introducing a four-pillar vision framework under the acronym ‘VAYU’.

Vigilance–Victory–Preparedness (V): The focus will be on maintaining the highest level of operational readiness across all branches, while restoring combat strength to its sanctioned levels.

Atmanirbharata (Self-Reliance) (A): Efforts to develop indigenous capabilities in aircraft, sensors, weaponry, and technology will be accelerated. The goal is to sustain continuous combat capability through self-reliance.

Yukti (Strategy/Innovation) (Y): Priority will be given to creativity and innovation in strategic doctrines, technology, and operational methodologies. Key areas of focus include AI-driven command and control systems, counter-drone capabilities, resilience, and new operational domains.

Samashti Krushi (Collective Effort) (U): Coordination with the Army, the Navy, and other national institutions will be strengthened. The approach will align with the national ‘JAI’ (Jointness, Atmanirbharata, and Innovation) vision.

It was stated that this ‘Vayu’ (Air) framework will guide the development of an Air Force that is operationally ready, technologically modern, and self-reliant. The ultimate objective is to safeguard national interests and deter conflicts through credible air power.
